

International Symposium (ZOOM Webinar)

LIVE

Social Work Practice in Asia during the COVID-19 Pandemic

Community Resilience and Mental Wellbeing

How life changed during the COVID-19 Pandemic?

◇ SYMPOSIUM ◇

To address social problems arising from lifestyle changes due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, this international symposium examines social work ethics and support that promote community resilience, as well as mental health issues, in various countries.

The aim is to learn together about current common issues and responses across Asia.

13:00 Opening

13:20 Keynote Speech

Social Work around the World

- IFSW: Rory Truell (Secretary-General)
- Korea: Sug Pyo Kim
- Singapore: Amran Bin Jamil
- Iran: Seyed Hassan Mousavi & Hamed Olamaee
- Japan: Takashi Fujioka

14:15 Discussion

*Social Work Practice in Asia
during the COVID-19 Pandemic*

16:00 Closing

* Please note that the symposium may be cancelled due to unavoidable circumstances such as natural disaster (bad weather conditions and earthquake) or communication problems. Any cancellation will be announced on the JFSW website.

March 7 (Sun), 2021

Capacity: 300 participants (in registration order)

Deadline: March 6 (Sat) No participation fee!

Registration & Questions

Click HERE

Register from here and an automatic reply will be sent to the given e-mail address after registration.

Host: Japanese Federation of Social Workers (JFSW) <http://jfsw.org/>
Support: International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW) <https://www.ifsw.org/>

Inquiries to: JFSW Secretariat (at the Japanese Association of Certified Social Workers)

TEL: +81-3-3355-6541 Mail: kenshu-center@jacsw.or.jp